THIAGO ROSINHOLE

Rosinhole, an artist with a fervor for crafting unique narratives and visual expression, has honed a truly distinctive artistic style. Drawing inspiration from street art, pop culture, gaming and cartoon aesthetics, his mesmerizing artworks are brought to life using diverse materials. Resin, fiberglass, epoxy, spray and acrylic paint, and fine art markers all play a part in his creative process. The use of automotive varnish adds a polished finish to his sculptures, which vary in size from palm-sized to monumental, further showcasing his versatility and innovation.

Born in São Paulo, Brazil, in 1987, he embarked on a journey of contrasts and transformations. From a successful career in business administration, working in the financial market for twelve years for the six largest Brazilian private banks, to becoming an International Director for a global financial technology company in London, his transition to a full-time visual artist is a testament to his unique approach to art. Self-taught, Rosinhole has explored his passion for urban culture, toys, and visual arts, crafting sculptures, murals, branding, and art objects for private and corporate clients worldwide.

Thiago's influence extends far beyond the confines of his studio. As a celebrated artist, he has had the privilege of collaborating with numerous significant national and international companies, including Bulova, Redbull, Nivea, Logitech, Acer, Schaeffler, YouTube, Havanna and Globo, to name just a few. The Brazilian Hospital GRAACC, specializing in pediatric oncology, and Institute Ayrton Senna, focusing on youth education, are causes close to his heart. His work has also been featured in prestigious international exhibitions in New York City, Orlando, Austin, Paris, and Venice and at five consecutive editions of major comics and video game conventions such as CCXP, Pixel Show, and Brasil Game Show. These collaborations and exhibitions testify to his artistic prowess and status as an influential street artist.

Thiago became known as a toy art designer for creating the #WeAreAllMickey, a popular art collection project featuring the most famous mouse in the world dressed in fun and unusual characters. Some of his well-known collectors include Bernie Ecclestone, Silvio Santos, Neymar, Faustão, Lewis Hamilton, Suárez, Agüero, Tiago Leifert, Tiago Abravanel, Gaules, Casimiro, Luccas Neto, among dozens of international celebrities and public figures in the sports, entertainment, and music industry.

In addition to his passion for the arts, Thiago is a dedicated husband and father of two boys. He finds inspiration for his art in everyday moments, the experiences he shares with his family, and the color palette that paints the world. His journey from the world of finance to the brushes of creativity is an inspiring testament to how true passion and fiery talent can transform destinies and create works of art that echo through time. The artist lives and works from his studio in São Paulo, Brazil.
