CHARLES FAZZINO

Charles Fazzino, a graduate of the School of Visual Arts in New York City, is one of the most popular and highly collected pop artists. During his more-than-thirty years as a pop artist, he has inserted his unique, detailed, vibrant, and three-dimensional artwork into the very fabric of the popular culture. Fazzino's artworks are exhibited in hundreds of museums and galleries in more than twenty different countries. He has received many private and important commissions and has been selected as the official artist for festivals and events worldwide. Charles is often referred to as a pop culture historian because of his work's breadth and the way it touches his collectors and captures the best parts of their contemporary lives. His legacy will mark him as part of the next generation of famous pop artists as he follows the paths originally forged by pop art pioneers such as Andy Warhol, Keith Haring, Red Grooms, and Roy Lichtenstein.

Fazzino commemorated nine Super Bowls for National Football League and has been an official artist for the GRAMMY Awards, Country Music Awards, Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Indianapolis 500, The United States Olympic Team, National Hockey League All-Star Game, Daytime Emmy Awards, and more.
